

Meet the Project Director

BILL VINSON

I became the director of Seminary Extension in Nashville, Tennessee in 2001. Before that I had earned a Ph.D. in Theology with minors in Philosophy of Religion and Church History at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas and had been teaching at Southwestern and directing its Undergraduate and Lay Theological Studies Department.

I have been writing a ten-course series on discipleship. Each course is incorporated into a single book. Thus the name Classroom in a Book Discipleship Series. Each course is designed for independent study with no time limitations. There are no unit tests or papers required. However, to earn credit for the course, a personal learning assessment must be made by each student which describes how what he/she has learned will enhance his/her life and ministry.

We are developing courses for delivery by Internet and CD. The CD courses will be all interactive courses for independent study at your own pace.

May God sustain us all in our studies during this time, and may He bless you with knowledge and understanding which will enhance your pilgrimage. I will do all that I can to make your studying fun.

Your teacher,

Bill Vinson
